Biennial Settlements with Fiduciaries

The Kentucky Statutes, Section No. 1065, directs all County Judges to require all guardians, executors and administrators, once in two years to settle their accounts, unless there is an action pending in the Circuit Court for such settlements; and fixes the penalty at a fine of Ten Dollars, for each day any fiduciary fails or refuses to settle after notice.

Therefore you are hereby notified to appear in the office of the County Judge in Court House at Marion, Ky., on any week day between the first day of February, 1921, and the first day of March, 1921, and settle your accounts as such fiduciary.

Given under my hand as presiding Judge of the Crittenden County Court, this 21st day of January, 1921.
R. L. MOORE, County Judge.

The Louisville Courier Journal

The Great Paper of the Southland

The Courier-Journal is ably edited, it is sane and dignified in its handling of news; it is fearless, yet fair, in its editorial utterances; and it always will be found the champion of clean government.

The Courier-Journal surpasses all its competitors in equipment for getting the news of the day, because it has not only the Associated Press dispatches but the full wire service of the New York Times. In addition it maintains staff correspondents at Frankfort and at Washington.

NO KENTUCKY HOME IS COMPLETE WITHOUT IT.

By special arrangements we are now able to offer

THE DAILY COURIER-JOURNAL.

And the

CRITTENDEN PRESS

Both one year by mail for only $6.00

This offer applies to renewals as well as new subscriptions, but only to people living in Kentucky, Tennessee or Indiana. New subscriptions may, if desired, start at a later date, and renewals will date from expiration of present ones. If you prefer an evening newspaper, you may substitute The Louisville Times for The Courier-Journal.
